Message from the Managing Director

This new year started with the news of corona virus (Covid-19) wide spreading in the different part of the world. While we are following our routine, we need to take extra precaution to prevent the virus from spreading further.

In February, the sudden change of government adds further to the uncertainty. When the Ministry of Health identified there is a big chain of infection take place near us i.e. Sri Petaling, we were all put under Movement Control Order (MCO) starting from 18 March 2020. This is the first time for everyone to experience work from home and we are unable to know the real impact of this at this moment.

As business is not operating as usual, the economic environment is challenging. If the MCO extended, it will affect our monthly salary, everyone needs to be prepared for the worst case scenario. We look forward to better financial assistance from the government for the SMEs.

Eco Office Initiative Project (EOIP) Stakeholder Meeting & Achievement Certificate Presentation

Eco Office Initiative Project (EOIP), is a Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) project from Nets Printwork Sdn Bhd, that promotes sustainable workplace concept and implementation. The project wishes to bring about positive social and economic impact while reducing its negative environmental impacts of daily business. It focuses on four core components: Green Purchasing, Green Operation, Green Engagement and Green Growth. A registered organisation will be pre-evaluated, set feasible goals, work on the scope under the four themes and assessed by an independent panel in order to be recognised as eco office. EOIP stakeholder meeting and certificate presentation ceremony was conducted on 20 February 2020 (Thursday).

Ms Teh Soo Tyng (Programme Director of EOIP) presented the certificates to Mr. Kelson Kee from Junior Chamber International (JCI) Petaling Jaya (third from right), Mr. Ramakrishna Damodharan, Managing Director of Adipven (M) Sdn. Bhd. (fourth from right) and Mr. Lim Tik Hau, founder and principal designer of Haus Studio (fourth from left). Some potential participating organisation also attended the event.
