Myanmar New Year

We are celebrating the Myanmar New Year (Thingyan) for the first time this year. It is a simple celebration, however our foreign colleagues rejoice their celebration with some sprinkle of water among themselves. Although the Burmese food was limited and their New Year flower – yellow Thingyan was not available, they managed to share with us the other local foods that they like.

Message from the Managing Director

This quarter we have some events and news to celebrate as well. We have extended the festive celebration idea by organising the Myanmar New Year celebration this year. It is a good way to learn a bit of their New Year and how we are able to celebrate together. We do not just do it for our workers but also attracted the nearby Myanmar workers to join the feast.

Our Eco Office Pilot Programme has finally gathered its first Front Runner. We hope the Front Runner will have a good experience and able to inspire other organisation to go green as well.

We have quite a number of exposures in the media this year. It is likely to be on average one publication each month. Our eco story was featured in one book entitled "Ada Standard, Untung!" a collection of success story on companies that had been using certain standard / certification. The book was published by Standard Malaysia. Besides, Pumen magazine also covers our environmental protection efforts in Mandarin version. Our interview together with the FSC Malaysia during one press session early March was published in The Star newspaper in June finally. These publications will continue to encourage us to improve further in near future.

EOIP Pilot Programme

After several months of preparation, we have published the Eco Office Initiative Programme – Pilot Programme User Guide. We hope this user guide will better help the Front Runner of the programme to go through their pilot programme in six months time.

We are also glad to have the first Pilot organization / Front Runner. They are Setia Awan Holding Berhad. We would like to thanks Dato' Jimmy Doh for his support towards EOIP. We hope they will become one of the role model to implement EOIP concept in the workplace.
